

Nov 30, 2021 | Online Event

9:00 am EST / 2:00 pm GMT	Empowering Front-Line Employees with a Dynamic Connected Worker Strategy for Maintenance and Inspections <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Maintaining specialized equipment: Diagnosing issues and providing support whenever and wherever it is needed • Giving subject matter experts the ability to react to the facts and interact with people in the field • Leveraging images, videos and documents to make decisions • Enabling teams to share experiences, increase the spread of knowledge and improve collaboration • How a reduction in costs reduced employee's hesitation to engage with internal and external SMEs for support Eric Duchesne, Senior Vice President, Manufacturing & Projects, Total
9:45 am EST / 2:45 pm GMT	Connected Workers Enabling the Connected Plant In a world of quickly evolving connected worker technologies and devices, there are no shortage of options for equipping teams with the ability to collect data and access information from any location. While device options are great, the biggest hurdle most organizations face when implementing effective mobile technologies always ties back to the data, user enablement, and adoption. This presentation will discuss some of the core use cases for improved operational efficiency, team productivity, and arming the organization with intelligent and actionable data. Session Includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Secure Remote access from anywhere, even down to Mobile HMI • Capture valuable equipment health to drive analytics and actions • Digitize your mechanical integrity inspection field data collection process • Improve data aggregation and visualization on any device Jared Hartness, Director of Industry Solutions, GE Digital Christy Pooler, Product Marketing Director, GE Digital
10:30 am EST / 3:30 pm GMT	How to Improve Field Workers Inspections and Maintenance Processes with a Mobile-first Digital Transformation Learn how to leverage state-of-the-art digital data collection that can help connect your teams, share knowledge and lead to more efficient maintenance planning, workflow management, and ultimately lower costs, reducing errors and carbon footprint. Discover in our session: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - How a leader in the energy industry transformed its old workflows in record time

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Learn new approaches how to set up digital workflows, from the work order, a digital checklist to the final report- Why mobile devices are the key to increasing the safety and efficiency of your operations and maintenance- Top innovations and functionalities that will make the life of your field workers easier Peter Semancik, Business Development Manager, Resco
11:05 pm EST / 4:05 pm GMT	The Connected Worker Ends for the Day